NO. 41-43 ST. CLAIR ST. AT BRIDGE. FRANKFORT, KY.

REINSTATED.

In the Court of Appeals, on Tuesday, a decision was handed down, reversing the decision of Special Judge W. O. Harris, of the Clark Circuit Court, disbarring Judge Wm. M. Becker from the practice of his profession because of a deposition which he gave for use in the English Courts.

We believed, all the while, that the highest court would so decide, as it looked to an outsider that the whole thing was a piece of spite work.

BOSWORTH—In Lexington, on Monday, Mr. George W. Bosworth, aged 75 years.

Mr. Bosworth was a highly respected, upright, Christian gentleman, who had lived a long and useful life. He was a devout member of the First Baptist Church, Lexington. He was a cousin of Mr. E. W. Bosworth, of this city.

The funeral took place on Tuesday last, Rev. Preston Blake, D. D., his pastor, conducting the service, and the remains were laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery.

INSTALLED AS PASTOR FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A committee of the West Lexington Presbytery held the regulation services connected with the installation of Rev. J. R. Zeigler as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of this city, on Tuesday evening.

Rev. Dr. F. W. Hinnitt, of Central University, Danville, preached the installation sermon. Rev. C. L. Reynolds, of Lexington, delivered the charge to the congregation. Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, of Mt. Sterling, delivered the charge to the pastor.

Beautiful and appropriate music was rendered by the choir.

There was a large congregation present, who were highly pleased with the strong and eloquent sermons preached by the ministers who officiated.

Mr. Zeigler, the new pastor, is a preacher of great ability and power.

Lots of attractions, such as the White City, &c.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at all druggists.

BACK TO BUSINESS.

The good steamer Falls City, which met with an accident several weeks since, was released from the ways last week, and reached this city on Tuesday evening, with a big crowd of excursionists aboard. She made the long trip this time.

This good boat looks as spry and span as when new. She is doing a fine business.

Big cut in Cotton, Silk and Wool Dress Goods at Weitzel's Summer Clearance Sale.

WON THEIR SUIT.

Some time since we made mention of the fact that Messrs. W. A. Gaines & Co., of this city, had brought suit against A. M. Heilman & Co., of St. Louis, Mo., for an infringement of the trade-mark, "Old Crow," as applied to their whisky made at their Old Crow Distillery.

On Friday last U. S. District Judge Dyer rendered a decision sustaining the contention of Messrs. Gaines & Co., ordered an injunction to prevent the use of the trade-mark and for an accounting of profits resulting while using the trade-mark.

FINE ADDRESS BY REV. C. R. HUDSON.

Rev. Chas. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian Church, delivered an address before the Frederick Douglas Forum, a colored educational association of this city, on Monday night, which was closely listened to by a large audience.

The address was a very able and instructive one, and well calculated to do great good.

The address was one of a series which are being delivered by the pastors of the different white churches of the city, at the request of the Forum.

DOES THIS FIX ITS AGE?

The workmen, in tearing down the Mansion House, came across a hewn popular girder, which was in the roof, and which bears the inscription, cut on its surface, "Hewn by Kahan, 1818."

No one living seems to know the exact date of the erection of this old hostelry, but it is thought that this came nearer settling the question than any thing else that is known.

CHARGED WITH SEVERAL BURGLARIES.

Of late there have been several burglaries committed in this city and county, which have puzzled the officers. It is thought that the mystery has been solved by the arrest, on Thursday, of a man by the name Bob Turner, who lives above the Cochran distillery on the river.

The officers claim to have direct evidence upon which the arrest was made.

Officers Pierce and Reagan made the arrest.

FARMER'S

JULY McCURE'S.

The July McCure's is unique in features. There are six of them and a more interesting issue of any magazine would be hard to find. "Will the 'America' Fly to the Pole?" by Walter Wellman is a fairy story of reality—and graphically describes his alarph and the dash he will make to the Pole next month. Ellen Terry in "When I Was Married" tells of her romantic marriage to the painter, Watts, when she was not quite sixteen. She also tells of several years of her early life on the stage. Anecdote after anecdote make her memoirs charming. Carl Schurz dramatically paints "The Battle of Gettysburg." "The Confession and Autobiography of Harry Orchard," who now figures so large in Idaho, are most astounding, and give one a key to the man's character in the story of his first deadly errors. C. C. Connelly brings out most amazing and melodramatic Montana history in "The Fight for the Minnie Healy," in which contest "almost every crime in the calendar was committed." Georgine Milmine's "Mary Baker G. Eddy" takes up the story of "Mrs. Eddy and Witchcraft," and shows Mrs. Eddy's strange belief in witchcraft and malicious Animal Magnetism.

In fiction this July McCure's is also striking. "The Story of Sheelab" by Maude Radford, comes first and shows up a bonnie Irish lassie, Sheelab, and her brave and good heart. Mrs. Wilson Woodrow adds another fascinating "Zenith" story in "Her That Danced," and strikes a deeper note than in any other Zenith tale she has given us. In "Patsy Moran and the Warnings," Arthur Sullivan Hoffman introduces to us a man who believes in signs and warnings and sees many of them in the course of an evening's adventure. There are also two poems: "Turnpike Chronicles," by Sarah N. Cleghorn, and "Judgment," by Frances S. Lyman.

The illustrations are by Sigismund de Ivanowski, F. Walter Taylor, and James Montgomery Flagg. One of the illustrations in Terry's "Memoirs" is from a painting by the artist C. F. Watts, which, with the photographs that accompany it, make this portion of the magazine very beautiful. The other articles are also pictured with striking portraits and views.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by all dealers.

THE MAGIC NO. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50 cents.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Now that the workmen are tearing away the old Mansion House building, it has been suggested to us by a prominent gentleman of this city that it would be best for the safety of the city that the Main street side should be kept clear of obstructions, so that, in case of fire, the fire department boys would have a clear field for their run.

It is a good suggestion.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 29, 1907

CORKERS AND TWISTERS.

By Mrs. O'Houlinan.

One of the most desirable and attractive residences in the city of Frankfort, now so illuminated by beautiful homes, is that of Col. John N. Crutcher, on the West Side. Its picturesque situation, looking out upon the broad waters of the Kentucky river from its front portico, with spacious grounds on every side, shaded by forest trees of natural growth, and embowered amid shrubbery and flowers of choice selection and attractive cultivation, has recently been supplemented by tasteful additions to its structural features. The deft and skillful hand of the artisan—the builder, the plumber and the painter—have been for weeks busy in supplying every modern appliance for comfort and convenience their good judgment could suggest. It is now in its entire completeness, in its structural outlines and in its tasteful and rich coloring without disparagement to others—the handsomest and most attractive residences on the West Side. The attractions of this lovely Kentucky home are made the more complete in the presence of its worthy and enterprising owner, and his estimable, popular and liberal-hearted wife and daughter.

Following the demolition of the central portion of the old Mansion House, will be the construction of a seven-story steel and concrete "sky-scrapers," that will be known as the "McClure Business Block." This edifice will not only add, in a superlative degree, to the architectural adornment of the city but will be a splendid tribute to the public spirit, the business sagacity and the earnestness of the promoters and planners of the enterprise. While many will regret that satisfactory arrangements could not be perfected to include the entire frontage of the Mansion House on St. Clair street in the new structure, yet it will tower as the most conspicuous and best equipped business block in the greater Frankfort of today. In the limited scope of three paragraphs all the details of this splendid structure can not be given, yet in every particular it will be a triumph of modern art and mechanical execution.

It has been a long time since John Haly purchased the old hostelry for $10,000 and remodeled it in many features, including the conversion of the lower story, on St. Clair street, into stores—and it has been longer still since Marshall's regiment of cavalry drew up in line on the Main street front, as it was en route to the Mexican war. Probably the only living representative of its hotel conduct is Col. John N. Crutcher, of the West Side, who was at one time a popular clerk in its office. But times have changed and are changing, and all must accommodate themselves to the procession—tempora mutantur et mutatur in illis.

Apobos of the changes observable in the times in Frankfort are those relating to the wage earners—the working classes. Thirty years ago, when one crossed the old wooden bridge in the early morning and wandered out Bridge and Second streets, the only living thing visible would be a few negroes, casually perambulating the streets or standing about the street corners. No females were visible. Now, between the hours of five and seven a constant stream of men passes along those thoroughfares, each with his dinner basket, and between six and seven a like stream of girls, bright and full of spirit, trip along on their way to the factories or to do duty as clerks in the stores and shops.

MEETING OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM TWENTY-ONE SUNDAY-SCHOOLS OF COUNTY GATHER IN ANNUAL CONVENTION AT BENSON.

representative from twenty-one Sunday schools of Franklin county gathered at the Benson church Tuesday for the annual convention of the Franklin County Sunday-school Association.

Owing to the fine weather a splendid crowd was in attendance, it being estimated that fully 300 people were present. The delegation from this city went down on the morning L. & N. train and returned in the afternoon.

At noon a delicious, old fashioned country dinner was served by the ladies of the congregation. Those who were present say that it was fit for a king, and never did a crowd appear to enjoy an occasion more. They did full justice to the excellent menu.

On the election of officers for the ensuing year, the following were chosen:

President—E. R. Jones.
vice president—R. K. McClure.
Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Fannie Rales.

County Superintendents—Prof. A. N. Gordon, Teacher Training; Rev. C. R. Hudson, House to House Visitation; Miss Louise Ward; Primary Department.

Good reports were heard from all of the schools, and it is hoped that Franklin will soon become the banner county of the district.

After the opening song service and devotional exercises, Rev. Wm. Crowe, of the Southern Presbyterian Church, spoke on the "Value of a Sunday-school to a Community," taking the place of Mr. W. G. Simpson, who was detained in the city.

State Secretary E. A. Fox spoke on Teacher Training.

Rev. J. O. A. Vaught told of the Relation of the Home to the Sunday-school.

In the afternoon, Prof. A. N. Gordon spoke on Winning and Holding the Boys and Young Men.

Rev. C. R. Hudson led a conference on "Difficulties I have met in Sunday school work and How to Overcome Them."

Secretary E. A. Fox then told "What We Are Striving to Accomplish in 1907."

The committee on resolutions, composed of Mr. Bedford Macklin and Rev. William Crowe, made the following report:

1.—This convention expresses its gratitude to this congregation for its use of their church building and for their abounding hospitality manifested in so many ways.

2.—We also thank Mr. E. A. Fox, State Secretary, for his presence and help.

3.—We express our appreciation of the aggressive and efficient work of Prof. Jones, our County President, and promise him our co-operation in the extension of the work.

4.—We recommend:

First—That our next County Convention be a delegated body, each Sunday-school, being entitled to one delegate, which representative is to be elected at least two weeks before hand by the body of teachers of his own school.

Second—That we put forth every effort to make Franklin a banner county by the end of this convention year.

Third—That we make each Sunday-school as efficient as it can be made.

Fourth—That we commend the International convention to be held in Louisville next year.

BEDFORD MACKLIN,
WILLIAM CROWE,
Committee.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Owing to several occurrences of late Mayor Hume issued the following proclamation on Monday last:

"Whereas: There has appeared to be some misapprehension as to the order given the members of the police force of the city of Frankfort in regard to entering saloons, I do now proclaim, by the power invested in me as Mayor of Frankfort, that hereafter no police officer shall be allowed to enter a saloon under any pretext except to quell a disturbance, or to perform some other official duty.

"Any violation of this rule will be sufficient grounds for suspension for a stated time for the first offense, and for removal from the force for a second offense.

E. E. HUME.

"Mayor City of Frankfort."

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

A white man by the name of Lucien Sams, living on Wilkinson street, attempted to commit suicide, on Monday, by jumping into the river.

Messrs. L. T. Rogers and Bud Clark were notified and ran to the river, succeeded in pulling the man out.

His cold bath caused a change of intention.

Domestic infelicity is said to be the cause of the rash act.

EXCURSION RATES TO LOUISVILLE LAST SUNDAY.

The regular Sunday train, on the L. & N. Railroad, owing to excursion rates, was filled with passengers en route to Louisville.

These trips to Louisville and Cincinnati are becoming more and more popular all the time.

A SPLENDID MAN SELECTED AS IMMIGRANT AGENT.

Mr. Chas. G. Mutenburgh, law clerk for Chief Justice O'Rear, has been selected by the State Board of Agriculture and Forestry to go to Switzerland during the vacation of the Court of Appeals, and endeavor to induce the better class of immigrants to come from that country to this city. He is a native of Switzerland.

The appointment is an excellent one, Mr. Mutenburgh is a gentleman of fine attainments, and of the highest standing.

HE FIRED THE STICK.

"I have fired the walking stick. I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Aches and Pains; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, etc., by all druggists. 25 cents.

BEAUTIFUL WORK OF ART.

Miss Margaret Howard, daughter of Mr. W. A. Howard, who has been attending Nazareth Academy, returned home last week, and we were shown some of her work as an artist in water colors, which were simply masterpieces. One represents a pair of swans on a lake, gliding among water lilies, the other represents a basket of peaches, and both are absolutely true to nature, especially the last, which looks so tempting that one almost irresistibly desires to pick them up and eat them.

Miss Howard certainly is an accomplished artist and has a bright future ahead.

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me
—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath,
Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that organ today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—Rev. Geo. W. KILACOFF, Cincinnati, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver and lungs become affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

All druggists sell and guarantee first bottle Dr. Miles' Remedies. Send for free book on Nervous and Heart Diseases. Address Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

FLAG FORT.

The rains are not so frequent and the farmers have about caught up with their work. Things look very flourishing about this place.

Dr. T. R. Moore, a prominent physician of this place, is in very delicate health. It is earnestly hoped by his many friends that, if they can pull him through the hot weather to chicken harvest, that he will recover.

Miss Loula Duvall closed her school at Bald Knob on Monday last. She is an energetic young teacher from Harvieland.

Mr. Oscar Wade, the well known son of Mr. Jim Wade, is often seen visiting out in Pleasant View country. It is the general opinion of the people that he has his eye on the charming young daughter of Mr. J. P. Hulet, Miss Mary.

Miss Emma Peters, of Waddy, is visiting friends and relatives at Harp.

Miss Cora North had another fellow Sunday. Look out, Mr. Oscar. Luther might beat your time. Miss Cora is now visiting her sister at Ottusville.

Mr. Sallie Nash has finished her carpet, and is now ready to entertain company, providing you do not call before ten o'clock a. m.

Bailey, Walmer & Co. are doing a large business as merchants at this place. They handle most anything in the dry goods and grocery line at reasonable prices. Call and see them.

Mrs. Allison, the mother of Mrs. T. R. Moore, is visiting her son, Mr. Virgil Allison.

Rev. C. N. Benight preached at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church on Sunday last, at 11 o'clock a. m., and Rev. G. A. Reed, preached at 5 o'clock p. m. There was a large attendance at both services.

Mr. Arthur Thompson and wife are a prosperous young couple who reside on Willow Branch. They are much loved and appreciated by their many neighbors.

I have not heard from Misses Cordia Long and Effie Bishop for some time. I suppose Mr. Luckett and Mr. Long still call every Sunday.

Miss Ida Polsgrove, of Ottersville, called on her teacher, Miss Elizabeth North, on last Monday.

Miss Susie Slattery attended church at Pleasant Ridge Sunday.

Miss Mary Hulet went to Monterey on Tuesday last.

WORK OF DEMOLITION COM- MENCED.

The work of demolition of the old Mansion House, corner Main and St. Clair streets, was commenced on Tuesday last.

The McClure Realty Co. has let the contract for a splendid building, which will be seven stories high, of steel and concrete construction, and up to date and modern in all its appointments.

Messrs. Bailey & Körner, of Louisville, have the contract, and are already rushing the work of razing the old landmark.

The ground floor will be fitted up for elegant and attractive store rooms, while the upper floors will be arranged for office rooms of the most desirable character.

MANDATE TAKEN TO LOUISVILLE

The mandate of the Court of Appeals in the Louisville election cases was taken to Louisville on Thursday and presented in the circuit court on that day. It became effective as to larger part of the offices at once. The Mayor and some few others hold until the Governor makes the appointments and the appointees qualify.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A very happy and joyous occasion was the celebration of the 73d birthday of Mrs. Sarah Games at the home of her son, Mr. Joe Games, near Woodlake, this county, on Sunday, June 17, 1907. Quite a surprise to her when one after another came in, all looking happy, and giving no hint that they brought with them a bounteous dinner, all well prepared, and which was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

The following were present: Mrs. Fannie Estes and daughter, Sophia, and Miss Willie Bell, Mr. Bedford Estes, Mrs. Martha Games and family, Mr. Herndon and Preston Games, Mr. Preston Calvert, Miss Nellie Phillips, of Lawrenceburg; Miss Viola and Jimmie Alexander, Miss Bonnie Yardin, of Marshall, Mo.; Mrs. S. WONDERFUL ECZEMA CURE.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at all Drug Stores. 50c.

SAW IT TRIED.

A farmer has made a discovery that will be of vast importance to farmers during a dry season. He has found that by planting onions and potatoes in the same field and in alternate rows the onions being so strong, bring tears to the eyes of the potatoes in such volumes that the roots of the vines are kept moist and a big crop is raised in spite of the drouth.—Boone County Recorder.

We had a neighbor to try this once, and it worked all right; but when the corn in an adjoining field began to "shoot" the onions "all laid flat down on the ground" and the potatoes "took to the hills"—Georgetown News, June 25.

GROUND LEASED.

Blue Grass Fair Association Makes Splendid Addition To Its Beautiful Plant.

In order to provide ample ground for its exhibition, the Blue Grass Fair Association has leased for a term of years ten acres of choice property immediately adjoining the plant of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association from the Gibson estate. On this ground will be placed suitable buildings for cattle, sheep and hogs. For the State Fair of 1905 and the Blue Grass Fair of last year, temporary buildings were erected to care for these several classes of stock. Due to the necessity of hasty construction, these buildings were not so comfortable as they might have been, and last year the heavy rains which prevailed during the week of the Fair caused exhibitors some inconvenience. All of this will now be averted. First class buildings will be erected, with excellent roofing, so even should rain come during the week of the Fair the stock will be absolutely protected. This splendid addition to its grounds will also enable the Blue Grass Fair Association to have a high class machinery exhibit without use of the infield, which has been somewhat difficult of access, both to the firms making exhibition and to the visitors. All the machinery will be placed on part of these grounds and special arrangement will be made allowing practical demonstrations. The machinery exhibit will be one of the interesting features of the Blue Grass Fair during the week of August 12th to 17th.

GLASS WORKS SHUTS DOWN.

The Frankfort Mades Glass Works will go out of blast today and will remain closed until the first of September. The management say that this is rendered necessary by the fact that the men can not stand the excessive heat of the months of July and August, that is, the usual heat of those months.

LOUISVILLE HAS NEW MAYOR.

Under the decision of the Court of Appeals, which was filed in the Jefferson Circuit Court, on Thursday, the office of Mayor became vacant upon the appointment of a new Mayor by the Governor. About noon on that day Gov. Beckham appointed Mr. Robt. W. Bingham, the present county attorney of Jefferson county, to fill the position.

Mr. Bin ham has been an ardent friend of the Governor in his fight on the Louisville machine. He is a first-class, young and energetic lawyer. It is thought that he will make a good and efficient Mayor.

The rest of the Louisville appointments will probably be made today.

SPLENDID RECORD.

The Court of Appeals will adjourn today for the summer vacation after having disposed of more business than ever has been done at any time in the past. The total number of cases decided runs up to over 1,200, and leaves only about twenty-five submitted cases undecided.

At this rate that court will be up with the docket by the 1st of January, 1908.

SIXTEEN SPLENDID ACTS.

Through an arrangement with Frank P. Spellman, of Cleveland, Ohio, the Blue Grass Fair will have the most remarkable program of free attractions ever offered in the South. This program will include sixteen splendid acts each afternoon and each night. It is the same program done by exactly the same people which has been arranged for the Ohio State Fair at Columbus, one of the two or three biggest fairs of the entire country, and one which devotes special attention to its free attractions. These attractions will embrace practically all the interesting features of modern circus, and the program will require about two hours for its completion. They will include Spellman's troupe of performing bears, the largest troupe of bears ever offered at any show. They will include the great Valentines, the most sensational trapeze and casting act which has been put before the public in a number of years, and a number of other attractions equally good. These attractions will be daily feature of the Big Blue Grass Fair from August 12th to 17th inclusive.

Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book on Dr. Shoop's Restorative. CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boecher's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration. But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c. Regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.

A lady living in California sent the following exquisite bit of poetry to another dear relative in this city last Christmas. We take pleasure in giving it to our readers:

Across the valleys of the coast,
Across the jagged mountain host
Well named the Rocky—over seas
Of prairie vast and fertile leas,

Unto a land loved long and well
I turn, this Christmas morn, to dwell
In tender thought—no sapphire skies
Shall lure me with their sophistries.

To shift allegiance, and recant
A life's traditions—to supplant
The old and dear, for the new and strange
The things of now, for the long sweet range,

Of the years that reach in series sweet.

Till, in childhood's echoes, they merge
and meet.
For the freighted friendships of the past
Laden with memories treasure vast.

May the joys of the yule-tide sing to thee
That, vibrant, thrilled through the hush of morn
When the chiding angels proclaimed its dawn.

AIR SHIP ENGAGED.

Roy Knabenshue Will Make Daily Ascents at the Big Blue Grass Fair.

The Blue Grass Fair Association has closed a contract for a Knabenshue airship to make daily ascensions during the fair. This contract was made last week, after a full consideration of all the different airship propositions of the country.

The Knabenshue ship was chosen because it has been most successful in its demonstrations of the practicability of aerial navigation. Mr. Roy Knabenshue himself will come to the Fair to make the ascents, and there is no doubt that his flights will be most successful provided weather conditions are not absolutely adverse. When it is raining it is of course not possible to fly in an airship, nor can a satisfactory flight be made when a high wind prevails. Under any other circumstances, however, the flights can be carried out, and on each day of the Fair some two or three exhibitions will be given at different periods, so that a. who come may have the opportunity to witness them. An aerodrome tent will also be provided wherein the ship will be kept when it is not making its ascents. In this tent will be a demonstrator who will explain every detail, and thus visitors will be given the opportunity both to see the ship in motion and to examine it at their leisure. The Knabenshue airship will be the big feature of the Blue Grass Fair every day from August 12th to 17th inclusive.

PEA RIDGE.

Mr. Dudley Laceyfield and wife, Mr. David Laceyfield and wife, Mr. Sam Laceyfield and wife were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Laceyfield, Mr. Laceyfield, Sr., who will be 90 years old his next birthday, has been quite feeble the last two weeks, but is now believed he is improving. His many friends hope he will soon be well again.

Mr. Joe Tracey is visiting in Hatton this week.

Miss Samuella, Miss Lena and Miss Beulah Crutcher and brothers were the guest of Frank and Miss Lilafield Edge last Sunday.

Mrs. L. Edge and daughters attended the Sunday-school Convention at Benson last Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Chambers, of Frankfort, is spending her vacation with her parents and other kinsfolk this week.

The whole neighborhood was saddened by the recent death of Mrs. Lucy Conway, the youngest daughter of Mr. Isham Pierce and wife. She was a native of old Pea Ridge. Fair and sweet, pure and loving as girl and woman, as near perfect as it is possible for mortal to be and her loss is great and grievous to bear for all of us who have known and loved her so long.

Mrs. Allen Stigers and baby attended the Sunday-school Convention. As Miss Etta Allison, the teacher at Pea Ridge, and many of her former pupils were greeting her and admiring her sweet baby.

There is lots of work in the country now on the farm, but the laborers are few and hard to hire.

Tobacco is growing fine. Some of our farmers took advantage of the recent rains and set out their last plants.

One of Morgan's old cavalry men predicts that the next Governor will be a Republican.

A number of ladies took their babies to the Sunday-school Convention, and a finer looking set or better behaved never attended any convention.

Town and country interest seem to be identical. Fifteen thousand dollars worth of houses are being built five miles from the city that would have been built in Frankfort if about one mile of pike had not been dangerous to travel. The people miss the sidewalks, stores, gas, electric light, besides the other convenience of water in their houses, having to go so far for water this hot weather.

In any part of the county good words can be heard of Mr. Will Hawkins, our assessor, for his short, clear report (published.) It contains so much information in a small space, and for history, geography, natural history, literature and finance, it ought to be in our school books. If our Bill wants anything our county can give him he has just to ask for it. "Our Bill" would make a good superintendent for Franklin county.
